You went to school because they walloped you if you played hooky:

You got your life insured because the agent kept hammering at you:

But there's one good thing you went to of your own accord: That's Mecca!

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Mrs. Frances E. Moseley, widow of Charles W. Moseley, formerly a railroad superintendent, died Sunday at her home in Manchester Center.

Three cows belonging to Nathan Greene of Wilmington were found dead in the pasture under a maple tree, where they had been struck by lightning. Only a few months ago he was offered $100 for one of the cows.

The postoffice at Cambridge was broken into during Friday night and was ransacked, but no booty was secured, as the postmaster had carried home all the money and stamps.

The first 1916 circus license to be issued by the state tax department was issued Saturday to Sparks World Famous Shows which will show at Belvidere Falls June 19 and St. Johnsbury June 27. The show travels in fourteen cars.

A horse which served in the Burlington fire department for 18 years, but had not been used there for a year and a half, was put back in the service a few days ago in place of another, and at the first clang of the bell was out of his stall and in his place under the harness.

A farewell reception was given Mr. and Mrs. Harlan N. Wood in St. Johnsbury Saturday evening. Mr. Wood has been principal of St. Johnsbury academy for 12 years and leaves to become assistant principal of an academy near Cleveland, O. A purse of $100 in gold was presented them.

Thomas Carty of Shoreham, while driving to the village last Wednesday afternoon with his wife, was so overtaken in trying to restrain his runaway horse that death ensued almost instantly. When the horse began to run, Mrs. Carty jumped out, her husband trying to control the animal, and remaining in his seat until the wagon was tipped up and he fell out, living but a few minutes.

Lyman Boyd, eight-year-old son of Mrs. Walter Hescock of West Dover, while playing during the noon intermission of the village school, got too near the edge of the Deerfield river bank and fell in. Both bones of his right wrist were broken, but in spite of this he managed to swim to the opposite shore and after his wrist was set seemed to feel no other ill effects of his fall.

Harry R. Gammon had rather a harrowing experience in the mill at Proctorville one day last week, when his clothes caught as he was standing on a stepladder near a rapidly revolving shaft, and he was whirled around until his clothing was torn from his body, only his stockings and shoes being left. The tearing off of his clothing released him, letting him fall to the floor. No bones were broken, but he was badly bruised.

A telegram received from Washington announces that the University of Vermont again has been ranked in the "distinguished" class by the war department and an honor graduate may be substituted for appointment as a second lieutenant. Institutions of college or university grade, the graduates of which are best qualified for commissions in the United States army by reason of discipline, education and military training are eligible to this rank. Last year for the first time the university was ranked in the "distinguished" class, being one of thirteen institutions in the country to win the coveted honor. No recommendation for appointment as second lieutenant will be made until Lieut. S. A. Howard, the commandant, returns from West Point, N. Y., where he is attending the graduating exercises at the United States Military Academy.

GRANITEVILLE.

The ladies' aid society will hold an ice cream social in the church hall Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. No admission is to be charged. Ice cream will be on sale. Donald I. Murray of Dell, P. Q., is visiting friends in town for a few days. Miss Emma McDonald was a week-end visitor at the home of Mrs. John McRae.

Obituary.

In the passing of Mrs. Philena Persons, widow of John Willard of East Montpelier, long since deceased, the state has lost a philanthropist, the town an honored citizen, the Universalist church its last surviving charter member and most generous supporter, the community a sympathizing, helping friend. In dispensing her beneficence, Mrs. Willard never let "her left hand know what her right hand was doing." Only the thankful recipients knew her thoughtful generous acts. She was born in East Montpelier in 1838. Early in the fifties she wedded John Willard and continued to live in her native town, where her happy, beautiful, useful life has been spent. Her constant cheerfulness was infectious, her smile a benediction. She was known as the "dear, grand old lady." A friend to the friendless, an inspiration to her friends, a blessing to all within the family circle. Every minister found in her a loyal supporter, every stranger found his way to her unbounded hospitality, and every little child knew her, loved her instinctively and sought the sunshine of her smiles.

For the past few years Mrs. Willard had been somewhat of an invalid. Accidents and a severe attack of pneumonia had increased her feebleness, but through all her days of suffering and pain her merry laugh never deserted. She was one of those beautiful souls who see God's goodness, God's beauty and love everywhere. She is survived by one brother, George Persons, of Barre; two sons, J. M. Willard, assistant general manager of the C. P. R. dining service and Charles Willard of East Montpelier; also six grandchildren. Her friends far and near, hearing of her death, will feel a sense of personal loss, someone very near and dear to them gone hither to the Beautiful Beyond.

ALL FASCINATED BY WOMEN'S HAIR

With a Little Attention, Hair Beauty Can Be Quickly Doubled

Nearly every woman who has an ordinary head of hair can by giving it just a little attention have luxuriant hair, soft, fluffy and radiantly beautiful.

It's a good thing to know this because hair preparations that put life and luster into dull-looking hair are scarce, but it is a fact known to nearly every druggist that Parisian Sage, a delightfully clean and refreshing tonic, not only will make your hair look 100 per cent. better, but will quickly stop it from falling, rid it of dandruff and scalp itch.

Parisian Sage is well worth a trial and the Red Cross Pharmacy, who dispose of a great quantity of it, will tell you so, and refund your money if it isn't all you expect.—Adv.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and it will quickly stop it from falling, rid it of dandruff and scalp itch.
